

PRIVACY NOTICE

This notice complies with the UK GDPR
(General Data Protection Regulation as amended in the Keeling schedule)

Laide & Aultbea Community Woodland Trustees take your privacy seriously and are committed to protecting your personal information. We aim to be clear and open about our data and security practices. Information collected through this website will only be used in accordance with the Privacy Policy available here.

Trustees collect and hold certain personal data for the purpose of fulfilling its charitable objects as set out in its founding Deed of Trust.

The organisation will record and process personal data about its trustees, members, supporters, volunteers, contractors, attendees at LACW events and other (natural) persons who have logged an interest in the LACW or its activities with LACW from time to time.

LACW's lawful basis for processing data will vary according to the data subject, but for example in the case of members, it will be to administer their contracts of membership; for supporters & volunteers it will be in relation to legal obligations/requirements and/or their consent.

Trustees will take all reasonably practicable measures to keep that personal data safe and secure.

The Trust will only pass personal data to 3rd parties without the consent of the data subject where it is necessary for us to do so in support of the fulfilment of our charitable objects.

The Trust will never sell, rent or trade personal data to any 3rd party.

Any requests or issues or complaints should be sent by post or email as above.
